

8 October 2009

Hello everyone,

I arrived safely back in Tainan at 12:30 am Tuesday morning and had "catch-up" meetings all day with individual staff.

Thank you for your prayers on my trip to America. It was so good to visit with those I was able to meet. It was an extremely busy time, so I'm sorry I missed some of you. I now look forward to seeing and hearing from Taiwanese friends again.

Praises:

1. Safe trip to and from America
2. Mom is 84 and well, except for Alzheimer's
3. John came for nice visit after completing 8-1/2 years of Army service. He is moving to Kansas and will attend school.

Prayers:

1. John is driving U-Haul to Kansas and should arrive Sunday
2. ROH's yearly News Report goes to print Oct. 15th
3. Many appts this next week to promote Nov. 1st fundraising banquet
4. Taiwan has new law that unwed mothers must sign statement saying they do not know boyfriend's phone or address. (This is bad law, due to fact that if mother knows and says so, boyfriend often tries to get baby, which keeps tie to unwed mom. Baby may be sold or abused.) Law now is that if unmarried, mother has complete say where baby goes.
5. Melody Bostad, who returned with me for one month volunteer service to update our web services
6. Charissa Sonntag travels from Illinois to volunteer at ROH two months on Oct. 14th

God bless.
Juanita
